Our Status and the Services Provided

We are an insurance intermediary offering a non-advised service. This means you are responsible for deciding whether a policy meets your demands and needs and is suitable for you. Our service includes but is not limited to arranging your insurance cover and helping you with ongoing changes.

The Capacity in which we are acting

We act as your agent in arranging and administering your policy. When claims handling, we act as an agent of the insurer.

Insurer security

The insurers we use are regulated and required to hold adequate capital resources. We cannot guarantee the solvency of any insurer we place business with. If you have any concerns about your insurance company, please contact us.

Credit Searching and References

To make sure that the insurers can provide you with their best price, ascertain the most appropriate payment options for you and to protect you from fraud, they will use public and personal data from a variety of sources, including a credit reference agency and other organisations. Credit reference agencies share information with other organisations, enabling applications for financial products to be assessed, helping to trace debtors, and preventing fraud. Credit scoring uses a number of factors to work out risks involved in any application. A score is given to each factor and a total score obtained. Where automatic credit scoring calculations are used the acceptance or rejection of your application will not depend only on the results. By applying for a quotation, you agree to these uses of your information. The insurers' search will appear on your credit report whether or not your quotation proceeds to application but it won't harm or adversely affect your credit profile.

Anti-Fraud Registers

We will pass details to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register (CUE) and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register (MIAFTR), run by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB), to check the information provided and prevent fraudulent claims. When dealing with your request for insurance these registers may be searched. If we identify a discrepancy on the aforementioned registers which does not correspond to the information you have provided, we will apply the correct information. Where applicable, your insurer may charge an additional premium. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document. Where as a result of us applying the correct information, your insurer cancels cover, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Under the conditions of your policy, you must inform us of any incident (such as an accident or a theft) which may, or may not, give rise to a claim. When you inform us of an incident, we'll pass the information relating to it to the registers.

Your Responsibilities

When purchasing, amending and renewing your insurance policy, you must take care to answer all questions honestly and to the best of your knowledge. If you are unsure of your answer to a particular question, you should make reasonable efforts to obtain the information required to answer it correctly.

If you need help with any of the questions, please see the accompanying help text or the frequently asked questions. If you cannot find what you need, please contact us. You are reminded that it is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make any false statements or withhold any relevant information to obtain a Certificate of Motor Insurance. Please note that under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 you're not required to disclose convictions regarded as spent.

Documentary Evidence

To provide you with competitive prices and to combat fraudulent applications and claims our insurer partners may require us to validate driving licences and proof of No Claims Discount on their behalf. Failure to provide us with this evidence, if requested to do so, within 21 days of the start date of your policy will result in your insurance policy being cancelled. If your policy is cancelled for this reason, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Further details of what we require from you is available at <https://vavista.com/information/legal/car/validations/>.

Driving Licences

Where applicable an additional premium will be charged by your insurer. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document.

If you do not provide us with valid proof of your No Claims Discount within 21 days of the start date of your policy, then your policy may be cancelled or you may be able to remove the discount and pay an additional premium. This will not be automatically processed on your policy, you must call Customer Service to make this change. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document.

If you exercise this right and the cover has not yet commenced, you'll be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid less a £35 charge. If the insurance has commenced and provided that you have not made a claim or a claim has not been made against you, we will return to you the amount that you have paid us, after deducting:

- A pro rata deduction of the total premium for the time that you have been on cover, unless your policy is underwritten by an insurer where short period premiums apply.

Outside the 14 day cooling off period

Our insurance policies are arranged for an agreed period of time and you are required to pay the full amount stated. Where the insurance policy is cancelled other than within the cooling off period and provided that you have not made a claim or a claim has not been made against you, we will return to you the amount that you have paid us, after deducting:

Payment of Premiums and Refunds

Unless otherwise agreed and formalised by a premium instalment plan, all premiums are due on the day cover is arranged, the date the policy is due for renewal, or the date any mid-term adjustment is processed. We only accept credit and debit cards for any payments (excluding American Express).

Where we arrange a premium instalment plan we act as a credit broker on behalf of our customers. We do not act as the finance lender. A charge of £50 is payable for arranging premium finance on your behalf. It will be collected as part of the deposit payment payable by credit or debit card or by being added to the amount of the premium finance loan. The Vavista instalment plan is arranged by Creation Consumer Finance Ltd.

Creation Consumer Finance Ltd. is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. Should your application for credit with Creation Consumer Finance Ltd. be declined, they will write to you confirming this and you will need to make alternative payment arrangements. As part of the application process, Creation Consumer Finance may carry out checks and searches which will appear on your credit file. Other lenders and businesses may use this information to assess future applications. Creation Consumer Finance Ltd. reserves the right to refuse credit.

You will be responsible for paying any instalments as they fall due. If payment is not made, Creation Consumer Finance will charge a £25 fee for each arrears notification they send you each time a Direct Debit is not set up, is cancelled or returned and on each occasion a cheque is returned. This may adversely affect your credit rating and obtaining credit in the future may be more difficult.

You have 14 days to exercise your right to withdraw from the credit agreement with Creation Consumer Finance Ltd. This can be done by contacting Creation Consumer Finance Ltd. The right to withdraw only applies to the credit agreement and not the insurance policy. If you want to cancel the credit agreement full payment for your insurance policy will be required.

Failure to pay the instalments will result in us issuing a 7-day notice of cancellation. Your insurance cover will cease from the date advised in this letter. If we cancel your insurance for this reason, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Please note: We do not issue refunds of less than £1.00. Any refund due to you will be off-set against any balance that may still be outstanding on your instalment plan. In most cases, refunds will be credited back to the card used to make payment. However, we may issue refunds by cheque, made payable to the policyholder. If you have any concerns over either of these refund methods please contact us prior to making any changes to your policy. Please note that the choice of whether to refund by card or cheque is for security reasons and remains at our discretion. Refunds made by payment card will appear in your account between 3-5 working days once processed depending on your banking provider. Please allow up to 28 days to receive your refund.

We will not accept responsibility for cancellation of insurance by insurers due to late or non-payment of premium by customers.

Handling moneySafeguarding your money

Premiums that we collect from you are held in a non-statutory trust bank account specifically for the purpose of holding premiums. By virtue of agreements held with insurers, we collect premiums as agents of the insurer. Therefore, once we have collected the premium from you, under the terms of our agreements with insurers, those premiums are treated as having been paid to the insurer(s). We will remit premiums to insurers in accordance with our agreements with insurers.

How your money is safeguarded

Premiums that we collect will be held in a Non-Statutory Trust Client Bank Account. We hold the money as agents of the insurer in collecting premiums and handling refunds. In these circumstances such monies are deemed to be held by the insurer(s) with which your insurance is arranged. The establishment of the Non-Statutory Account follows FCA rules introduced to protect money held by intermediaries. If we become insolvent, insurers will have a prior claim on the money according to their interests. We may agree to extend credit to other customers using money from the bank account. We'll have in place and maintain systems and controls to ensure that we are able to monitor and manage client money transactions and any credit risk arising from the operation of this trust arrangement.

Earning interest on customer premiums

We hold premiums that you pay us in a Client Money Bank Account. Under Financial Conduct Authority Regulations we have to inform you that we may earn interest from money held in our Client Money Bank Account, which may exceed £20.00 for any one transaction that you make with us. Interest earned will not be held for the benefit of customers. By accepting these Terms of Business, you are giving your consent for us to act in the manner described above.

Other Taxes or Costs

Please note that there is a possibility that other taxes and/or costs may exist in respect of products and services offered by us, which are not paid through or imposed by us.

Governing Law

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales and the parties agree herewith that any dispute arising out of it shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

Variations

No variations to these terms are held to be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorised officer of the company. The Company's staff are not authorised to agree any variation. We may vary the terms of this agreement on renewal of your insurance policy. We will notify you of any change to these terms in your renewal invite. This will be sent to you 21 days before the expiry date of your insurance policy so that you can make an informed decision about whether to renew your policy on the new terms.

Statutory Rights

Agreement to our Terms of Business does not affect your statutory rights.
