

COOKIES POLICY

Our website uses cookies. This Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, the type of cookies we use and their purpose.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are used to make websites work or work more efficiently. They also provide information to the owners of the website.

The table below sets out further information about the cookies we use, including why we use them.

We use cookies to help customize our website and improve your experience.

2. TYPE OF COOKIES

- Strictly necessary cookies

These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. For example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website.

- Analytical or performance cookies

These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- Functionality cookies

These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

3. SESSION AND PERSISTENT COOKIES

Session cookies are temporary cookies which only exist during the time you use the website (or more strictly, until you close the browser after using our website). Session cookies help our website remember what you chose on the previous page, avoiding the need to re-enter information and improve your experience whilst using our website.

Persistent cookies stay on your device after you've visited our website. For example, if you request for your login details to be remembered by ticking a box when you log into your account, a persistent cookie will be used, so that the website remembers you the next time you use it.
