Credit Searching and References

To make sure that they can provide you with their best price, ascertain the most appropriate payment options for you and to protect you from fraud, your insurer will use public and personal data from a variety of sources, including a credit reference agency and other organisations. Credit reference agencies share information with other organisations, enabling applications for financial products to be assessed, helping to trace debtors, and preventing fraud. Credit scoring uses a number of factors to work out risks involved in any application. A score is given to each factor and a total score obtained. Where automatic credit scoring calculations are used the acceptance or rejection of your application will not depend only on the results. By applying for a quotation, you agree to these uses of your information. The insurer search will appear on your credit report whether or not your quotation proceeds to application, but it won't harm or adversely affect your credit profile. However, the search carried out by the finance lender will place a hard search footprint on your credit file and this may be seen by other lenders.

Anti-Fraud Registers

We will pass details to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register (CUE) and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register (MIAFTR), run by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB), to check the information provided and prevent fraudulent claims. When dealing with your request for insurance these registers may be searched. If we identify a discrepancy on the aforementioned registers which does not correspond to the information you have provided, we will apply the correct information. Where applicable, your insurer may charge an additional premium. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document. Where as, a result of us applying the correct information, your insurer cancels cover, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Under the conditions of your policy, you must inform us of any incident (such as an accident or a theft) which may, or may not, give rise to a claim. When you inform us of an incident, we'll pass the information relating to it to the registers.

Documentary Evidence

To provide you with competitive prices and to combat fraudulent applications and claims your insurer may require us to validate driving licences and proof of No Claims Bonus on their behalf. Failure to provide us with this evidence, if requested to do so, within 21 days of the start date of your policy will result in your insurance policy being cancelled. If your policy is cancelled for this reason, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Further details of what we require from you is available at <https://vavista.com/information/legal/car/validations/>.

Driving Licences

If requested to do so you must send us copies of the following documents:

- Licence Summary available from <https://www.gov.uk/view-driving-licence> for all drivers named on the policy.
- Front of the Driving Licence Photo Card for the policyholder only.

We recommend that you send us these via your smart phone as outlined in your Welcome letter, alternatively you can scan/photograph these documents and send them to: documents@Vavista.com. Please do not send the original licence. We cannot accept responsibility for any loss or non-return of original licences. If on receipt of proof of your Driving Licence(s) and an active licence check code(s) we identify a discrepancy which does not correspond to the information you provided, we will apply the correct information. Where applicable, an additional premium will be charged by your insurer. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document.

No Claims Bonus

Please note that if you have taken out your policy on the basis of having earned a No Claims Bonus (NCB) we may require written proof within 21 days of the start date of your policy. - Earned within the European Union (provided in English by a sworn translator)
- Stated in years and not as a percentage.
- Not being used on another policy (No Claims Bonus can only be used on one policy at a time).

We cannot accept a No Claims Bonus that does not meet the above criteria.

If on receipt of proof of your No Claims Bonus we identify a discrepancy which does not correspond to the information you provided we will apply the correct information. Where applicable an additional premium will be charged by your insurer. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document.

If you do not provide us with valid proof of your No Claims Bonus within 21 days of the start date of your policy, then your policy may be cancelled or you may be able to remove the No Claims Bonus and pay an additional premium. This will not be automatically processed on your policy, you must call Customer Service to make this change. We will also apply the charge(s) as set out in the 'Policy and Administration Charges' section of this document.

If you make any changes to your policy or add additional information we will send you a copy of the revisions. You will have the opportunity to correct any errors, but please be aware that this could result in an additional premium being charged by your insurer and an administration charge by ourselves.

Breach of any terms, conditions or warranties may enable your insurer(s) to terminate your policy, or repudiate a claim under your policy. If there is anything you do not understand please contact us for help.

Cover

Within the 14 day cooling off period

If you're a consumer buying or renewing a policy which provides cover for you in a private capacity, you have the right to cancel your policy during a period of 14 days either from the day of purchase of the contract, or the day on which you receive your policy documentation; whichever is the later. If the insurance has commenced and provided that you have not made a claim or a claim has not been made against you, we will return to you the amount that you have paid us, after deducting:

- A pro rata deduction of the total premium for the time that you have been on cover
- A pro rata deduction of our annual policy arrangement fee.
- A £35 cancellation charge as set out in the 'Policy and Administration charges' section of this document
- If a discount was applied when you took your policy out, this discount will be deductible from any return premium due on a pro-rata basis.

Outside the 14 day cooling off period

Our insurance policies are arranged for an agreed period of time and you are required to pay the full amount stated. Where the insurance policy is cancelled by you, us or your insurer, other than within the cooling off period and provided that you have not made a claim or a claim has not been made against you, we will return to you the amount that you have paid us, after deducting:

- A pro rata deduction of premium for the time that you have been on cover
- Our annual policy arrangement fee.
- A £75 cancellation charge as set out in the 'Policy and Administration charges' section of this document.
- The full cost of all add-on products that you purchased.
- If a discount was applied when you took your policy out, this discount will be deductible from any return premium due on a pro-rata basis.
- RAC breakdown cover- Unless a claim has been made on the policy, you will receive a pro-rata refund less any commission amount as detailed in your confirmation letter

Where the amount that you owe exceeds the amount that you have paid us, you will be required to make payment for the outstanding amount within 14 days. Failure to do so may result in us taking steps to recover the debt.

Payment of Premiums and Refunds

Unless otherwise agreed and formalised by a premium instalment plan, all premiums are due on the day cover is arranged, the date the policy is due for renewal, or the date any mid-term adjustment is processed. We only accept credit and debit cards for any payments (excluding American Express).

Where we arrange a premium instalment plan we act as a credit broker on behalf of our customers. We do not act as the finance lender. By paying monthly, you will incur additional charges, and interest will be payable making the overall cost more expensive than paying annually.

The Vavista instalment plan is exclusively provided by Premium Credit Limited ('Premium Credit') and all Direct Debits are protected by the Direct Debit Guarantee. Your personal information and the bank details you provide to us will be passed to Premium Credit.

Premium Credit is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. They will act as a separate data controller of your personal data once your information is transferred to them. Credit is subject to status and Premium Credit may use one or more credit reference agencies to perform credit and identity checks on you. It is important that you read the Premium Credit privacy notice which includes information about how Premium Credit will use your information including the credit and identity checks they perform on you with credit reference agencies and the footprints these leave on your credit files which are seen by other lenders. They will also use these details to set up a new Direct Debit Instruction and collect repayments by Direct Debit. Should your application for credit with Premium Credit be declined, they will write to you confirming this and you will need to make alternative payment arrangements. As part of the application process, Premium Credit may carry out checks and searches which will appear on your credit file. Other lenders and businesses may use this information to assess future applications. Premium Credit reserves the right to refuse credit.

If you fail to make your required monthly payment on time, Premium Credit will charge you a £25 default fee.

If your application for credit is accepted by Premium Credit, you will receive a welcome pack which includes a customer reference number, and a Credit Agreement between you and Premium Credit which you will need to sign online or by paper and return to Premium Credit. Failure to return the Credit Agreement within the required timescale as stated in their welcome pack will result in a £25 administration charge.

Please note that Premium Credit has its own set of terms and conditions and charges and you should familiarise yourself with these by reading the Premium Credit documentation carefully.

Premium Credit will separately confirm to you the exact date of your first repayment in writing. You have the right to withdraw from the Credit Agreement within 14 days and details of such cancellation rights will be contained within the documentation issued by Premium Credit.

The right to withdraw only applies to the credit agreement and not the insurance policy. If you want to cancel the credit agreement full payment for your insurance policy will be required.

Failure to pay the instalments will result in us issuing a 7-day notice of cancellation. Your insurance cover will cease from the date advised in this letter. If we cancel your insurance for this reason, we will calculate any refund of premium in accordance with the 'Cancelling your Insurance' section of this document. Any refund due to you will be off-set against any balance that may still be outstanding on your instalment plan. In most cases, refunds will be credited back to the card used to make payment. However, we may issue refunds by cheque, made payable to the policyholder. If you have any concerns over either of these refund methods please contact us prior to making any changes to your policy. Please note that the choice of whether to refund by card or cheque is for security reasons and remains at our discretion. Refunds made by payment card will appear in your account between 3-5 working days once processed depending on your banking provider. Please allow up to 28 days to receive your refund.

We will not accept responsibility for cancellation of insurance due to late or non-payment of premium by customers. If, as the result of any adjustment to your policy, there is an additional or return premium due, your remaining repayments will be automatically adjusted, and your finance provider will tell you about this.

The price charged for your policy only applies for that year and subsequent renewal premiums may be higher.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- The Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit your finance provider will notify you five working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request your finance provider to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by your finance provider or your bank or building society you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
 - If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when your finance provider asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify your finance provider.

Continuous Payment Authorisation

To make things easier and more convenient for you, we will use your card details for future payments such as to automatically renew your policy or process any policy changes. In the event of an incident occurring which may give rise to a claim under your policy, you should notify us as soon as possible using the contact details on your Certificate of Motor Insurance, or on the homepage of our website under the Make a Claim section. Please note that you must report all incidents as soon as possible. Late notification could compromise your claim.

Quotations

We cannot guarantee that any quotes will be valid for any specific period of time as any quote given is dependent on insurer rates which can change frequently. You will be issued with a quote reference number, which in combination with your e-mail address will allow you to retrieve any stored quote from our online system. Your insurer has the right to decline your risk, increase the premium or restrict the policy if any errors or omissions are found in the Statement of Information. A quote shall be treated as an invitation to treat and can be withdrawn by the insurer at any point before the Certificate of Motor Insurance is issued.

Motor Insurance Database (MID)

Information relating to your insurance policy will be added to the Motor Insurance Database ("MID") managed by the Motor Insurers Bureau ("MIB"). MID and the data stored on it may be used by certain statutory and/or authorised bodies including the Police, the DVLA, the DVANI, the Insurance Fraud Bureau and other bodies permitted by law for purposes not limited to but including:

- i. Electronic Licencing
- ii. Continuous Insurance Enforcement
- iii. Law enforcement (prevention, detection, apprehension and/or prosecution of offenders)
- iv. The provision of government services and/or services aimed at reducing the level and incidence of uninsured driving.

If you are involved in a road traffic incident (either in the UK, the EEA or certain other territories), your insurer and/or the MIB may search the MID to obtain relevant information. Persons (including his or her appointed representatives) pursuing a claim in respect of a road traffic incident (including citizens of other countries) may also obtain relevant information which is held on the MID. It is vital that the MID holds your correct registration number. If it is incorrectly shown on the MID you are at risk of having your vehicle seized by the Police. You can check that your correct registration number details are shown on the MID at www.askmid.com

Withholding Documents

We reserve the right to retain certain documents until payments due have been made. We will provide any documents you are required to have by law. If the credit agreement requires you to pay an advance payment, you're required to pay that payment by the date specified by us or your policy may not be valid.

Safeguarding your money

Premiums that we collect will be held in a Non-Statutory Trust Client Bank Account. We hold the money as agents of the insurer when collecting premiums and handling refunds and, in these circumstances, the premiums collected are treated as having been paid to the insurer(s) with which your insurance is arranged. The establishment of the Non-Statutory Account follows FCA rules introduced to protect money held by intermediaries. If we become insolvent, insurers will have a prior claim on the money per their interests. We may agree to extend credit to other customers using money from the bank account. We'll have in place and maintain systems and controls to ensure that we can monitor and manage client money transactions and any credit risk arising from the operation of this trust arrangement.

Earning interest on customer premiums

We hold premiums that you pay us in a Client Money Bank Account. Under Financial Conduct Authority Regulations, we have to inform you that we may earn interest from money held in our Client Money Bank Account, which may exceed £20.00 for any one transaction that you make with us. Interest earned will not be held for the benefit of customers. By accepting these Terms of Business, you are giving your consent for us to act in the manner described above.

Variations

No variations to these terms are held to be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorised officer of the company. The Company's staff are not authorised to agree any variation. We may vary the terms of this agreement on renewal of your insurance policy. We will notify you of any change to these terms in your renewal invite. This will be sent to you 21 days before the expiry date of your insurance policy so that you can make an informed decision about whether to renew your policy on the new terms.

Statutory Rights

Agreement to our Terms of Business does not affect your statutory rights.
